FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with Branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £ 00 000 in new life assurances for 1863, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1863, shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £816,070 is real and substantial property:" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Government of Santa Fé, it is umoured, will shortly be removed to Rosario, until after the elections. There s something wrong going on up there ut here in Buenos Ayres few people nderstand the matter. President Mitre, we hear, has determined to end the Legion Militar to Rosario.

The last news from the west coast is of a very alarming character. It appears hat the Spanish war vessels which eft Montevideo recently, are bound or Valparaiso, as the Spanish Govern nent has made some claims upon Chile, o enforce which the Spanish Govern nent have sent their fleet.

The second officer in command of the Brazilian squadron, Sr. Barroso, has one up the Parana with two gun oats. We have not heard his exact lestination, but believe he intends to eize the Paraguayan coal hulk at Parana.

The arrival of the Paraguayan steamer Parana caused much surprise n town yesterday. Some thought that President Lopez sent down an apology o Sr. Paranhos, and others that the Paraguayan navy had possession of the river; but they were all mistaken, she came down with the Brazilian Minister; and we have no doubt Sr. Paranhos will fully appreciate the courtesy shown to the envoy by the much-abused Paraguayan Government.

The latest news from the camp is, that a band of robbers have the town of Ranchos in an alarm; somebody has been killed, but whether one of the robbers or shopkeepers we cannot say: the news was brought to town by the 'mayoral' of the diligence. The police force in these small towns need great reform; and we hope to see Sr. Cardenas, the Minister, taking the matter up. Half-a-dozen lazy peons, with big swords girded on, are the only emblems of authority in the country villages. If they meet with a drunkard, then they display their power in the most cutting style; but if a set of determined robbers make their appearance, the officers of the law are nowhere. The pay, however, which the village policeman get is so miserable, that it is impossible to suppose good, active men will enter the service.

The thistles in the camps are at present the most indescribable inconvenience. Generally speaking, they are kinder in the north than in the south; but we heard of a very narrow escape which a well-known shipbroker had recently. It appears that he, in company with two English merchants, took a drive out to see the Southern Railway works, towards San Vicente. They then pushed on for an English estancia, called the Galpones Grandes, some leagues distant; unfortunately, they mistook the Galpones Chico, and only when shut up in a bed of thistles discovered their mistake; they then resorted to the ordinary means for attracting attention. Our subscriber and informant states that the shouts of the best gentlemen could be distinctly heard at the back of his 'corral;' luckily a wandering gaucho made his appearance, and fixing his lasso to the vehicle, rescued the party. We suppose that the Argentine made a good aim for salvage.

The neighbors about Salto were thrown into the greatest consternation at the report that three men had been drowned in the attempt to cross the river. The unfortunate men, we understand, were natives. There is a general feeling of indignation at the neglect of the Provincial Government to construct a bridge over this river, and if we are correctly informed, a petition by the neighbors asking permission to build a bridge at their own expense, was sent to government and declined. This seems inexcusable conduct on the part of the government, and the result is that, as there is no bridge, and the river at times is very high and swollen, accidents like the present are continually occurring.

The Legislature of Corrientes, we have just learned, has passed the Lanus bank project. We apprehend, however that owing to the state of affairs up the river, and the tightness of money, both at home and abroad, it will be some time before the Correntinos will enjoy the luxury of their new joint stock bank. Had Mauá got the contract entered into with him, by the Governor, sanctioned, the Mauá Bank in Corrientes would be open now.

A rather disgraceful disclosure has been made in the men's hospital. It appears that two or three extraordinary cases occurred last week, which the doctors declared to be cholera-morbus. Great enquiry was made consequently as to where the patients came from, and all the doctors were on the qui vive. Suddenly, however, it was discovered that the victims had drank from a bad aljibe on the premises, which had been poisoned by a filthy sewer leaking into it. If this is not the most monstrous case of neglect on the part of the hospital authorities we certainly do not know what is. As it was generally believed that there were some cases of cholera-morbus in town, we hope the apprehension will be removed now.

The Immigration Committee of Buenos Ayres have at last determined to do something in the right way. We call attention to a circular from Mr. Ascuenaga, which will be found in another column.

A great alarm was caused in the Café de Paris on Monday, by some fellows entering that establishment and coolly sweeping away the tables, benches, &c. Some thought that there was going to be a boxing-match, whilst others supposed there was a fire in the next house. Subsequently the fellows commenced taking up the boards on the ground; this floored the spectators—the consternation knew no bounds, the street door was shut, and all ingress was stopped. It appears that the owner, anxious to chime in with the general regenerating fever, has determined to decorate and newly floor his café, and in order not to impede the business the workmen began operations at midnight.

The cricket-match is the absorbing topic—and we expect to see the ground crowded with spectators; the Bombay men have arrived, and attract general attention by their uniform; the betting last night was two to one against the Bombay eleven.

The new musical newspaper will appear on the 1st January; it will be called the Mouganga, which signifies we believe a big bee.

The Brazilian admiral has notified foreigners at Paysandú that he has landed his troops solely to protect their lives and property. This is a very different version from what our colleagues gave the public; it appears that the Brazilians are not willing to openly assist Flores.

Up to the hour of going to press, the Estrella del Norte had not made her appearance, and various were the conjectures as to the cause of her delay. She will probably arrive to-day.

The Dutch barque Sirus has brought from London a cargo of rails for Paraguay.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY.

GREAT WAR PREPARATIONS.

Yesterday, contrary to all expectations, the little Paraguayan steamer Parana, arrived in port with the Brazilian Minister, Sr. Lima, on board. The arrival of this steamer with his Brazilian Excellency on board, has relieved the public of the great anxiety which was entertained about this dignitary. As Minister Berges refused to surrender the Marquis de Olinda, it was surmised by many that Sr. Lima would have to travel on foot, but thanks to the courtesy of the Paraguayan Government, his Excellency and suite arrived in a less fatiguing manner.

The dates we have from Asuncion are up to the 26th November, and we extract the following from the 'Semanario:'—

"On the 18th November the Paraguayan Government acknowledged and received Mr. Adolfo Soler, in the character of Argentine Cousul in Asuncion."

The 25th November, which is the day observed in Paraguay to commemorate its independence, was the occasion of grand 'funcions,' and the 'Semiuario' publishes on the occasion a very strong leading article, showing the giant progress of Paraguay within the last few years, and the eternal state of anarcy and confusion in the other surrounding states.

The attacks of the Buenos Ayrean press has increased the animosity between the two countries, and if continued in can only terminete in war.

The Paraguari arrived up with three English machinists and four surgeons on board.

The news of the Indian invasion in the Argentine Republic, caused the greatest emotion amongst the people of Paraguay for the unfortunate Argentines who live in the provinces.

President Lopez had established his head-quarters at Cerro Leon, and was residing there, the leading persons of Asuncion going out frequently to visit him. The encampment at Cerro Leon is crowded each day with new recruits, and the regiments have rifle practice continually. Owing to the constant practice, the Paraguayan soldiers are becoming splendid marksmen.

The National Guards on furlongh are all summoned to town, and every one seems most willing to respond to the call.

The steamer Rio Apa is occupied in bringing down recruits from the riverine districts, and from thence sent to Humaita, where a splendid force is in readiness. At the different barracks in Asuncion, the men practice with the rifle daily.

The theatrical company is still in Asuncion, and gives nightly performances to crowded houses.

At a place called Tuyucuá a soldier attempted to murder a woman, some dispute having arisen at a ball, but he was arrested by the sleepless authorities and now awaits his trial.

The supplements of the 'Semanario' teem with petitions to the President, and the signatures are in tens of thousands—the whole Paraguayan nation seem to hate the Brazilians as much as the Argentine people beyond the suburbs of Buenos Ayres.

Several pieces of rifled cannon were conveyed by train to Cerro Leon, where the artillery are constantly practising.

A number of very active gentlemen, our colleague says, have invaded Asuncion in the character of tobacco brokers—where they come from is the question. It is believed in Asuncion that as the Porteños have at last fixed the paper dollar question some of the ounce brokers have gone to Paraguay. There is quite a stir caused by their extreme activity; they run all around the town to find a buyer or seller for a bale of tobacco, and then charge both with brokerage, which has caused quite a roar of indignation.

We are happy to remark that the agricultural prospects of Paraguay are most promising, and lament deeply that the long peace which that country has enjoyed is unfortunately ruptured. Few there are in Buenos Ayres who have a correct idea of the country which they so much abuse, and as every species of slander and calumny against Paraguay is popular, it is hardly worth the trouble to contradict them. Influenced by the same impartial spirit which dictated our answer last week to the lying insults of an unknown Spanish writer on Buenos Ayres and the whole Argentine Republic, we fearlessly and honestly say that it is unjust, improper, and impolitic for our colleagues to be heaping such abuse on a kindred people, who have far more claims on their friendship than their animosity.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE FALL OF SALTO.

Salto, Dec 2, 1864.

Mr. Editors,

Perhaps it would interest some of your many subscribers to read a few particulars of the surrender of this town to the Colorado forces under Gen. Flores; believing so I take the liberty of enclosing a few extracts from my diary, hoping they will be acceptable.

I remain your obt. servant,

H. G. C.

Thursday 24—At 7 a.m. the advanced guard of the Colarado forces appeared in sight, immediately followed by the main body, with artillery, &c. After a short delay at a neighbouring house, they all formed in companies and marched past the house, General Flores leading with his staff; next the cavalry followed by the artillery, consisting of three pieces of 12lb brass rifled guns, and bringing up the rear men, about 600 mounted infantry, with luggage waggons, &c. This force proceeded to take up a position on the hill near the town, overlooking the port and extending up to the saladero of Dn. Federico Tyo, where the General received the Brazilian commander of the three gunboats anchored in the port, and as some officers informed me the manner of attack on the town was agreed on. During the time this force was passing, two guns were fired from the town, but from the distance, 2000 yards, they fell spent, and were picked up by the soldiers. At 11 a.m. all of this force returned, and as they passed the house I counted about 1400 men in all. This was the main body under the immediate command of General Flores. On the other side of the town appeared another force of about 500 men, under I believe the command of Colonel Goya Suarez. All the day a constant skirmishing was kept up, the Colorados losing two officers and some men killed and wounded. On the return of the force, passing the house about a dozen cannon-shots were fired, but without doing any injury, the men appearing very anxious to pick up the balls, as they get four rials each for them, and I must give General Flores great credit for his forbearance in not returning the fire, but on the contrary gave strict orders not to fire a single shot against the town until further orders.

Friday, 25th—No movement on the part of the Colorados, but hear that in town they are making ditches and barricades at the corners of the principal plaza, taking all the bales of wool from the different deposits to form the defences, and taking up all foreigners to work at the ditches.

Saturday, 26th—Hear that General Flores started off to the Dayman, having heard that a Government force had arrived. In the afternoon paid a visit to Colonel Goyo Suarez, who gave me a protection for my horses, and heard that Flores was on his way back, and that the Government force was in Paysandu.

Sunday, 27th—passed over very quietly, only a few shots fired

On Monday 28th at 11.30 a.m., Don Andres Rivas waited upon me on the part of General Flores, asking me in his name and for the sake of humanity, as he wished to spare as far as possible all effusion of blood as well as protect foreign interest from loss in case of the town being taken by assault, if I would undertake to deliver a communication to the chief in command in town, Colonel Palomeque, requesting a surrender upon honorable conditions; to this I agreed willingly, knowing from the force brought against them the Government troops had no chance of resistance, having been abandoned by Colonel Leandro Gomez, who a few days previous had left for Paysandú with 400 men, leaving only about 300 men in town. The note was then read to me and was to the following effect—That all the officers would be allowed to leave with the honors of war for whatever destination they might elect; that all arms, guns, and warlike stores be given up. All the men to be considered as prisoners of war. An answer to be returned in four hours. Immediately started off for town, accompanied by Mr. Juan Pow, a friend on a visit at the time; when within about 600 yards we were suddenly brought up by a rifle-shot from the nearest canton, but upon shewing a white flag were called upon to advance and met by an officer who conducted us to head-quarters. On being introduced to Col. Palomeque and stating the object of my mission, he declared that he would not receive my communication, and that he was determined to uphold the national honor, and that all were determined to die rather than surrender with disgrace. After several observations on my part, acquainting him with the force that would be brought against him, he agreed to call a council of war, requesting me to wait for their answer; to this I consented, and would wait at Mr. Williams's until he sent me word. In about two hours an Aid de Camp notified me that the answer was ready, upon which I returned to the Policia and was informed by Colonel Palomeque that they had agreed to receive the note, after reading it and being informed verbally of the force that would be brought to bear against the town, viz., 1,000 infantry, with artillery, and assisted by the gunboats, he declared his intention of surrendering, but that a commission of foreign merchants would proceed to General Flores to get some slight modification of the terms. Upon this I took leave and started off to acquaint the General with the result. In the meantime the commission had started, headed by Mr. Williams, and on my arrival at head-quarters the General ordered his escort to mount and meet them. Upon being made acquainted with the additions he flatly refused any additions, and at once ordered his forces to be put in movement, but in the meantime we were all delighted and relieved by seeing the white flag hoisted on the church as token of surrender. This was brought about prematurely by the foolish and culpable conduct of two officers of the garrison who proceeded to the port and commenced firing into the steamer Gualeguay, wounding two men on board. The steamer answered by firing a couple of rockets with seven or eight shot and shell into the town, but fortunately without causing loss of life. The town was then immediately taken possession of, the garrison dismissed, and the officers sent on board the Buenos Ayrean steamer 25 de Mayo.

Tuesday 29.—The town full of Colorados. The two Banks advanced Gen. Flores 20,000$, with which he paid the troops, who, on the whole, behaved very well; only, two men killed a poor Italian, and an old Basco was shot by drunken men, who were immediately arrested, taken out to the campomeanto and shot. Paid a visit to the General, was received most kindly, giving me, written by himself, a further protection for all my horses, etc.

Wednesday, 30.—All the Colorado forces marched for Paysandú, Col. Santana remaining as Commander of the Forces, and Don Andreas Pires as Chief of Police.

I cannot finish this account of what we have passed through, without giving our sincere thanks, for I speak on the part of all British subjects, to Captain Nott, of the Shelldrake, for the great care he has taken to protect British interests in this place, by leaving us during all this time without any gunboat to assist us in case of emergency, arriving here after all was concluded.

EXTRAORDINARY FIGHTING.

Dec. 3, 1864.

The all-absorbing topic of conversation is the war declared by the Alopathic doctoys, and the Junta de Higiene, against the Homeopathic doctors; the columns of the newspapers are filled with the decrees, communications, appeals and replies between the two belligerent parties. The new Junta is made up of young men who have recently commenced practice, and take this method to bring themselves before the public. The secretary, Francis Bond, son of the very respectable and esteemed Dr. James Bond, is one of the prime movers of this war; he was for a while surgeon to the Government army, and he frequently declared that he gave his patients, for all kinds of disease, Epsom salts promiscuously, and they soon got so disgusted with the remedy that they did not often call upon him; he is what may be called a very fast young man; one of the bolays—with a letter from him the celebrated Hermansader, who took French leave of his friends in Buenos Ayres, obtained an introduction to some of those persons he victimised so well. They have already fined six of the homœqathic doctors for practising their profession, one of them, Dr. Lopes, who has been 15 years practising here, without being molested; to avoid a repetition of the fine he advertises to be as usual at his office, with his brother-in-law Dr. Korth, and another doctor, who in combination with him continue to give the public the benefit of their professional skill. So the Junta came out with another 'touta,' and suspended Korth and Co. for dealing out medicines, when only the apothecaries were authorised to administer salts and castor oil, so the war proceeds; but not content with this, they declare war against the midwives, barbers, apothecaries, and dentists, so they will soon have the house down upon their ears. Parteras are vey numerous, and cannot only wield their tongues with loquacity, but the broomstick also—so look out for something interesting.

Sr. Silva, the person who took poison last Sunday, did not die, and the Junta ought to trammel up the boticaria who who gave him the remedia, for he told the doctor that he took two spoonsful of strychnine, which is enough to kill half of all the doctors in this city; he must have a strong stomach, or else the strychnine was very much dilluted; he has been superseded in his post as agent for the Brazilian packets by Sr. Soares, recently arrived from Rio Janeiro. In all probability this line of steamers will be discontinued, as the Company have lost money the last year. The contract with the Brazilian Government for a subsidy terminates this month, and as there is very little probability of the subsidy being increased, the Company will put their steamers on a more profitable line.

The first victim of the season from bathing, is a boy about six years old, whose body was found, quite naked, after being missed several days by his parents.

The affair between the two smokers, in the plaza last week, is still pending. A challenge was sent to Butler, but he would not accept it, preferring either settling it with a horsewhip or pugilistically. The proposition was to stand at 40 paces, each with a revolver, and to advance and fire, "ad libitum." The Plaza has got to be quite a fashionable rendezvous for settling old scores. A few evenings since there was another demonstration. A young lady and her husband were promenading very lovingly, when her mama also came up with them, and immediately an altercation took place between mother and daughter, which finally ended in a regular fight. At it they went, tooth and nail; the daughter's new bonnet—the first time she had worn it—was soon demolished, and they used their nails to good effect, a regular caterwauling; it only terminated by the daughter running away. It appears that it is an old difficulty, the person who married the daughter being an old flame of the mother before she was a widow; so much for jealousy, the green-eyed monster for ever.

The U. S. war steamer Iroquois arrived yesterday. She is taking in coals for a cruise. She has called at more than twenty ports since she started on her cruise.

CIRCULAR.

COMMISSION OF IMMIGRATION.

B. Ayres, Nov. 25, 1864.

To the Consul of the Argentine Republic, etc.—

The undersigned, President of the Commission of Immigration, has the pleasure of addressing you, and endorsing several copies of the "Notice to Immigrants on their arrival at the port of Buenos Ayres," in which you will observe, that while taking upon itself the expenses of disembarking, this Commission has determined to prolong the term of lodging and board in the establishment to eight days; this time being more than sufficient to enable the immigrant to find a situation.

The Commission is confident that these philanthropic and protective measures cannot but have a favorable influence on the minds of emigrants. To this object it begs you to have the goodness to bring this "Notice" to the knowledge of emigrants who may request information at your Consulate, and give it all publicity in the principal newspapers of your city, notifying the Commission of the expense caused thereby, that it may be remitted.

It being of great importance that this commission should be advised of the sailing of vessels with immigrants for this country, it hopes that you will monthly report to this office of the vessels which leave there for this port.

The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to notify you that, with the object of making known in Europe the great territorial riches and the advantages which this country offers to the laborious emigrant, the Commission intends addressing you several important communications on the subject, counting upon your assistance, and any suggestion of any measure which you may deem conducive in the fomenting of immigration to the Argentine Republic.

(Signed) MIGUEL J. AZCUENAGA.

UP RIVER NEWS.

The Paraguayan steamer entered port with the Brazilian flag flying. We suppose this was because the Brazilian Minister was on board. She did not call at Rosario, so we have no news from that quarter.

Gov. Lagrana, of Corrientes, had suspended his trip through the provinces owing to the news from Paraguay.

Reports had been received in Corrientes from the frontier: no Paraguayan troops had as yet crossed.

In Paraná, and other Entre Rian towns, there is a great manifestation of feeling against the Brazilians, and the National Government for not opposing them.

The Paraná, as she passed one of the Brazilian war steamers in the river was saluted with 18 guns.

The Bolsa opened to-day at the customary hour, and bears and bulls promiscuously entered. The weather was melting, and the heat around the sawdust undescribable; but there was a freezing politeness displayed as his majesty the Bolsa King languidly approached "Compro" was the first word uttered, and it echoed round the hall like the Tacuari's guns in the River Paraguay, and thrilled the bears. A leading English broker stepped forward and sold, after which a few of the vapid compliments so common on the Bolsa were interchanged. Another insignificant transaction was then effected. The stillness which pervaded was ominous and "something desperate was about to turn up," was the general conviction.

At a quarter past twelve some persons began to talk about smoke, and five minutes afterwards the astounding intelligence that the Paraguay steamer had arrived, asphixiated the crowd—the various surmises as to the news brought down were characteristic of the brokers; some said President Lopez was on board, having come down to attend the cricket-match, others that two tame tigers from Humaita were distinctly visible on deck and sent as a present to Sr. Paranhos; but the widest awake of all the brokers smiled at such visionary conjectures and emphatically stated that the steamer come down for files of the 'Standard,' whereupon there was a roar, and ounces went up.

Paper-money reeled, and specie improved—suffering from the intense heat and the vexatious jokes, a number of the leading brokers repaired to the café to liquidate in time.

In Exchange there was only one transaction worthy of note, the rate is the same, 49¼.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Monterideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render imimense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

A large assortment of portable Crimean beds, highly suited for camp and travelling purposes at J. Underwood's, Calle Potosi No. 89. n24 1m

TOBACCO de la PALMA,

Derives its name from the circumstance of "the secret of its preparation" having been first revealed to a loue traveller, by an Indian, while reclining at the foot of three palm trees, resting from the fatigue of a hard day's ride

It is an article entirely different from any other in present use, and solely manufactured by the undersigned at their Steam Tobacco Factory.

Containing no Paraguay Tobacco it is free from that peculiar bitterness usually contained in Tobacco heretofore manufactured in this country for "pipe" use, while its strength is comparable with that of the American Tobacco.

Beng nicely cut, it prevents this unnecessary trouble to the consumer, and packed in "tins," of convenient size with adjustable covers, there is less to fear from drying than with other Tobaccos.

Owing to the high price of American Tobacco we consider this as an excellent substitute, and would particularly call the attention of those residing in the camp to the economy and advantage to be derived in the purchase of this article.

In consequence of the numerous applications made for this Tobacco, in "packages," the manufacturers have concluded arrangements whereby, in the future, they will be able to dispatch packages of 1 lb. each.

At the manufactory will also be found Tobacco-fuerte-colorado picado para cigarillos, nicely enclosed in packages of ½ lb. each; an excellent and convenient article for camp use.

Tobacco Frances of the best quality and at an exceedingly low price.

Having also the best and most convenient machinery in town for the cutting of Tobacco Negro, those who require large quantities cut with quick despatch and well done will find it decidedly to their advantage to patronize this Establishment.

The "Tobacco de la Palma" can also be obtained at the following well known places, viz.:

Messrs. Barry & Walker, corner of Calle Defensa y Moreno.
Muir & Urie, No. 162 Calle Defensa.
Claypole Brothers, 23 " " "
